AWFUL TRAGEDY IN MANITOBA.

School Teacher Shoots Three Trustees, Three Pupils and Himself.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 10.—Henry I. Toews, a Menonite school teacher in the old village of Altoona, sixty miles from Winnipeg on the Canadian Pacific line in Southern Manitoba, shot John Hiebert, Abraham Rempel and Peter Kehler, trustees, also three children, eight, ten, and eleven years of age, and also shot himself after running a mile towards the railway station.

The cause of the dreadful tragedy was some complaints about the teacher's management of the school. The trustees held a meeting in a dwelling house, situated a few rods from the school, Toews being present. The trustees were not satisfied with his conduct and he was apparently prepared with a seven-chamber revolver to take revenge if they dismissed him. The desperate man first shot Hiebert, then Rempel and Kehler last. Kehler scuffled with him and he discharged the revolver. The bullet passed across three fingers, breaking them.

Toews then rushed into the school room among the children and selected Kehler's two little girls, aged eight and ten years, shooting them through the body, and Rempel's little girl, eleven years of age, shooting her through the arm and breaking the bone. The Kehler children are fatally wounded and the doctor cannot say as to the other as yet. Five victims, it is believed, will die. Hiebert is a well known merchant. The others are farmers.

THREE KILLED IN A FIGHT.

Fatal Shooting Affray on the Streets of Eldorado, Ark.

Eldorado, Ark., Oct. 10.—Three men were killed, another will die and two others were wounded in a shooting affray on the streets here during the afternoon. The dead are: H. L. Dearing, Tom Parnell, Walter Parnell.

Guy E. Tucker, city marshal, was wounded and will probably die. The shooting is the sequel to the killing here Sept. 18 by Dearing of Robert Mullens, which followed a wedding.

The Parnells were friends of Mullens and Thomas Newton was a friend of Dearing.

During the afternoon Jim Parnell and Newton had some words. It is said that both factions prepared for trouble. Later Dearing, Tucker and Newton were walking along on the east side of the square when they met three Parnell brothers. Jim Parnell is said to have fired at Newton and in an instant the fusillade began. About seventy-five shots were fired. The men were close together and their aim was deadly. It developed into a man to man affair, Dearing and Tom Parnell emptying their pistols at each other at a distance so close that when they fell, unable to shoot any more, their bodies formed a cross. The others were firing promiscuously and it is supposed that a shot from Marshal Tucker's pistol killed Walter Parnell. Dr. Hilton, who tried to separate the men, was also shot, but not fatally.

GENERAL T. J. STEWART

GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC
ELECTS A NEW COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

SCORES PENSION BUREAU

Report of the G. A. R. Committee on Pensions Severely Arraigns the Medical Division of the Bureau. Calls It a Deadline Where the Claims of the Veterans Are Ruthlessly Executed.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The Grand Army got down to business during the day and the encampment of the order, besides hearing an address from Commander-in-Chief Torrance and reports from a number of officers and committees, elected a new head for the ensuing year. The new commander-in-chief of the G. A. R. is General T. J. Stewart of Pennsylvania, who was a leading candidate for the honor a year ago. His competitors this time were General John C. Black of Illinois, a former commissioner of pensions, and Colonel John McElroy of this city. The name of General Daniel Sickles of New York city was presented to the convention, but he withdrew from the race. William M. Olin of Massachusetts was elected vice commander-in-chief, and James M. Averill of Georgia junior vice commander-in-chief. Aside from the election of these officers the most interesting feature of the encampment was the report of the pension committee of the G. A. R. This committee severely scored the medical division of the pension bureau, declaring that it was a deadline where were executed the claims of veterans seeking pensions. It accused the personnel of this division of approaching the reports of the examining surgeons throughout the country with suspicion and distrust, and as made in bad faith. It denounced the reports that extensive frauds were practiced in pension claims as absolutely baseless.

The Woman's Relief Corps, the Daughters of Veterans and the Ladies of the G. A. R. also met in annual convention during the day. Thousands of veterans and their wives, new delegates to either of those organizations, attended army corps reunions in the big tents on the white lot or spent the beautiful October day in sightseeing. A feature of the afternoon was the dedication of the cornerstone of the proposed memorial bridge to connect Washington with the National cemetery at Arlington. Secretary Root was the orator of the occasion.

BRIDGE ACROSS THE POTOMAC.

Cornerstone of the Proposed Structure Dedicated at Washington.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The cornerstone of the proposed memorial bridge across the Potomac to connect Washington with Arlington cemetery was dedicated at a big open air meeting in the white lot during the afternoon. The stone weighs seven tons and was cut by the Stone Cutters' union of the District of Columbia. The inscription reads: "Designed and presented by the Stone Cutters' union of Washington, D. C., as the cornerstone of the memorial bridge which in connecting the national capital with Arlington shall ever stand as a monument to American patriotism. Dedicated Oct. 9, 1902, during the thirty-sixth national encampment of the G. A. R."

Secretary of War Root presided and made an eloquent speech in support of the proposed bridge.

LARGEST IN HISTORY.

September Postal Receipts Show an Enormous Increase.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The largest increase in postal receipts in the history of the service is shown in the reports of the gross receipts of the fifty largest postoffices in the United States for last month, as compared with September, 1901. These fifty offices furnish approximately half the entire postal revenue of the country. The net increase over the same month last year was 20 per cent. The total gross receipts were $5,958,694, an increase of $833,667. The largest increase was 50 per cent at Dayton, O., closely followed by almost 49 per cent at Jersey City, New York city and Chicago each showed an increase of 22 per cent.

UNION VETERAN LEGION.

Seventeenth Encampment Comes to an End at Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—The seventeenth encampment of the Union Veteran Legion closed here during the day. To meet next year at Dayton, O. George W. Spahr of Indianapolis was elected national commander.

Francis Taggart Baker of Buffalo was elected national president of the ladies' auxiliary.

Incendiary Forest Fire.

TO REVOKE ITS CHARTER.

Leave Asked to Sue the Philadelphia and Reading Road.

Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—Frank H. Thompson of this city, through counsel, has forwarded to Attorney General Elkin at Harrisburg a petition asking permission to use the name of the commonwealth in a suit against the Philadelphia and Reading Railway company to show cause why the company's charter should not be revoked. The ground on which the suit is based is the alleged violation of the state constitution, Art. 17, Sec. 5, which prohibits a carrying company from engaging in mining.

The petition declares that the Reading Coal and Iron company and the Temple Iron company and all their coal lands, leased or deeded, are owned or controlled by the Reading Railway company. It also charges that the Philadelphia and Reading Railway company has entered into an "unlawful combination to regulate and fix the price of coal," with the other so-called anthracite carrying roads. The Reading is also held accountable, in a large measure, for the existence of the anthracite miners' strike.

Suit was entered Wednesday in the United States circuit court by Mr. Thompson, under the Sherman act, all the principal coal carrying roads being made respondents.

QUIET AT WILKESBARRE.

Troops Have Nothing to Do but Their Daily Routine.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 10.—There were no developments in the mine workers' strike in this valley during the day. The entire community remains quiet and the troops had nothing more to do than go through their daily routine. The remaining commands of the Third brigade arrived in the Lackawanna and Wyoming valleys and were stationed at various points by Brigadier General Gobin. After this had been accomplished the general and two members of his staff left for Harrisburg. Brigade headquarters have been established here.

It is reported here that there is a movement on foot among the operators to ask Governor Stone for more assistance on the ground that the state troops now in the field are not sufficient to completely patrol the entire anthracite territory. If such a request is sent and the governor should grant it he would be compelled to call on the federal government for the troops.

WILL REPORT NEXT WEEK.

President Roosevelt Sends a Representative to the Coal Fields.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 10.—George Graham Brooks, as the personal representative of President Roosevelt, came here during the day to look up certain matters pertaining to the coal strike. He interviewed a number of miners in the evening. He will also have a talk with the local coal operators. He will make a report to the president early next week.

ROOSEVELT APPEALS IN VAIN.

President Mitchell Declines to Call the Strike Off.

Washington, Oct. 10.—President Mitchell of the coal miners' union has refused to comply with the appeal of President Roosevelt to call the strike off. His letter to the president, which was made public at the White House during the day, says the responsibility for the continuation of the strike should be placed upon those who have refused arbitration.

MORE GRAVE EVERY HOUR.

New Orleans Strike Situation Becoming Serious.

New Orleans, Oct. 10.—The street car strike situation in this city is becoming more grave with every hour. There was no violence of any note during the day, but there was a feeling of impending trouble which kept the whole city on the qui vive all day. Governor Heard arrived during the evening and immediately consulted a number of gentlemen on the situation. He met the mayor, Adjutant General Hummel, Major Glynn, Attorney General Guion, Speaker of the House Sanders, Secretary Hester of the Cotton Exchange and several members of his staff.

The New Orleans Railway company made no attempt to run cars during the day. The strikers and their sympathizers massed at Canal and Galvez streets to the number of 2,500 and waited patiently all day for the first car to come out.

AGREE TO A TRUCE.

Rival Unions of Garment Workers at Chicago Will Resume Work.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—A truce has been declared in the fight between the garment workers and the special order clothing workers as to which union has jurisdiction over certain classes of work and the boycott affecting over 4,500 garment workers was lifted.

Both organizations agreed to send their members back to work in harmony until the convention of the American Federation of Labor in New Orleans next month can decide all the points of the controversy.

Two Men Fatally Injured.

Vincennes, Ind., Oct. 10.—At the fair grounds here A. J. Bridgeman and his grandson, Russell McCormick, were riding in a buggy around the track when the vehicle was run into by race horses, breaking the buggy to pieces and throwing the men high into the air, causing fatal injuries. The accident was witnessed by 15,000 people.

TO THE BITTER END

OPERATORS STEADFASTLY DECLINE TO CONCEDE THE MINERS' DEMANDS.

ALL CONFERENCES FAIL.

Senators Platt, Penrose and Quay and Governor Odell of New York Meet

Nearly All the Coal Barons, but AX

Efforts to Settle the Great Anthracite Strike Result in No Material Progress.

New York, Oct. 10.—Replete at its opening with promise of a solution of the long drawn out struggle between the United Mine Workers of America and the operators of the anthracite properties in Pennsylvania, the day has closed without apparent appreciable progress toward an agreement upon the issues in controversy. Most noteworthy of the day's events was a conference at the office of Senator Thomas C. Platt, at which there were present, among others, the two senators from Pennsylvania and the governor of New York and nearly all the heads of the big corporations controlling the anthracite fields. In all seeming, this conference had a contrary effect to that which had been hoped from it, and the operators declaring adherence to the policy they have followed from the first, of resisting the demands of the miners' union to the bitter end. There were other conferences during the day, in which President Mitchell and people of more or less consequence in the industrial world participated, but these, so far as information goes, were barren of result as the principal meeting.

In brief, there has been no change in the situation during the day, so far as it might have been affected by the gathering in New York of labor leaders, mine operators and public men.

From what may be described as an inside and authoritative source, it may be announced that the conference at the office of Senator Platt was absolutely without result, the operators refusing to consider the political aspect of the situation and maintaining the position that the question was one between employer and employee as to the management of the properties concerned.

PASSES RADICAL RESOLUTIONS.

Detroit Coal Conference Favors an Extra Session of Congress.

Detroit, Oct. 10.—The 186 delegates representing eleven states who attended the interstate conference on the coal situation here during the day adopted resolutions after much debate, urging the president to institute civil proceedings looking to the enforcement of the interstate commerce act against the coal companies and criminal proceedings against their officers; petitioning the governor of Pennsylvania to call a special session of the legislature of that state to condemn all the coal carrying roads and sufficient of the mines to supply the demands of the people. Further, the resolution petitions the president to call a special session of the house of representatives and to recommend the appointment of a committee with full power to investigate the cause of the strike and to place the blame therefor. A supplemental resolution offered by Judge Frank E. Garvin of Indianapolis was also adopted and ordered attached to the main resolution. It urges the president to at once institute proceedings to dissolve "the present combination of the coal operators" and to have a receiver appointed to operate the mines. The supplemental report urges a special session of congress if it is impossible at present for the president to take this action.

THINGS ARE PROGRESSING.

Vague Intimation Given Out by Edward Lauterbach.

New York, Oct. 10.—Late at night there was a conference in the rooms of the Republican state committee between Governor Odell, Chairman George W. Dunn of the state committee, and Edward Lauterbach. Concerning this conference Governor Odell would only indicate that the talk was along general lines. He said, however, that the approval of President Mitchell had not been obtained to any suggestions or propositions for settling the strike. He added that if there was a renewal of the conference at Senator Platt's office he would in all probability take part in it.

Mr. Lauterbach and David Lamar drove up to the Ashland House and went in to see President Mitchell. They were taken upstairs to Mr. Mitchell's room, where they remained in conference about twenty minutes. Upon leaving, Mr. Lauterbach said: "Things are progressing. That's all I can say at this time." He and Mr. Lamar then drove away. President Mitchell would not be seen by reporters.

EFFECT WOULD BE APPALLING.

Plan to Call Out All Miners in the United States and Canada.

Denver, Oct. 10.—Telegrams have passed between the officials of the Western Federation of Miners and President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers, looking to a complete tieup of all bituminous coal mines in the United States and Canada. The telegram of President Moyer and Secretary Haywood of the Western Federation is as follows:

"Exigencies demand that no coal of any kind be mined in the United States until the anthracite strike is won. The Western Federation of Miners will co-operate to this end."

Mr. Mitchell's response: "Telegram received. Shall give careful consideration to your suggestion. Many thanks for co-operation and assistance."

AS THE LAW IS WRITTEN.

Nebraska Supreme Court Rules the Bible Out of Public Schools.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 10.—In an opinion handed down during the evening the Nebraska supreme court declares that the reading of the Bible, supplication to the deity and singing of sacred songs in the public schools of the state is prohibited by the constitution. The case is one on appeal from the district court of Gage county and the decision of the lower court is reversed. All the judges concur in the opinion, voicing, they say in their comment, not their individual wishes or opinions, but the plain law as it is written.

AGREE ON A SCALE.

Missouri Miners and Operators Come to Terms.

Kansas City, Oct. 10.—As a result of a conference here during the day between representatives of the United Mine Workers of Missouri and the Mine Operators' association, practically all of the 1,000 striking union miners of North Missouri will resume work at once. A new wage scale for the ensuing year was agreed upon and it is believed that all of the miners and operators in Missouri who have failed to agree on a scale for 1903 will soon arrive at a settlement.

A PLAIN DUTY.

It is the duty of every voter in this congressional district to consider the principles the two candidates stand for and decide which can do the most good for the greatest number before casting their ballot for congressman on Nov. 4. The following quotation from the democratic campaign book of the congressional committee will give some light as to where the democrats stand:

"Free trade would open our markets to benefit our own country. It is hospitable and seeks peace and good will with all nations. Reciprocity cares nothing for the consumer and hunts foreign markets with a club. Its stock in trade is high tariff, favoritism, discrimination and retaliation. It threatens to slam our doors in the face of foreign countries which will not open their doors to our products. Reciprocity is based upon the same false theories as is protection, and, like protection, is a sham and a humbug, and to most people has been, and will ever continue to be, a delusion and a snare. In practice, reciprocity is worse than protection."

There is no beating about the bush here, no talk of tariff revision with regard to certain schedules, and protection and reciprocity are both said to be based on false theories and both are called a sham and a humbug, remarks the Crookston Journal. The deduction then is that a vote for a democratic nominee for congress, a free silver one in this district, is a vote against the principles of reciprocity and protection which policy our industrial world is built up on and which has made our country the leading commercial nation on the globe. It is folly, therefore, to talk about democratic revision of the tariff simply on those schedules upon those articles which are now controlled by trusts. That is not democratic doctrine, never has been and never will be. Some few democrats may hold an opinion of that nature for a time, but they are not with their brethren in this and could not persuade their fellow democrats to put such ideas into legislation if they were in congress.

Some schedules of the tariff need revision and that revision will be made by the congress that is elected this fall. Now would it not be the part of common sense to let the republicans who are the friends of protection and reciprocity, deal with the tariff revision? The business world knows that conservative action would be taken and nothing radical or ruthless done, while if the democrats were in power there would be a feeling of uncertainty if not of fear, and the consequence to the present prosperity would be disastrous.

If we mistake not the people of the Sixth congressional district are not ready to turn the affairs of state over to the democrats and by their votes will say so in a most decisive manner. The democratic candidate, Dr. DuBois, is an extremist in free silver, free trade and anti-imperialism, and has been an exponent of all these things the people have put the seal of condemnation on. The public remember the doctrines that brought disaster in 1893 and they can not conscientiously vote to send a man to congress who still upholds them. C. B. Buckman, the republican nominee for congress, will uphold President Roosevelt and the administration, he endorses the platform on the trust and tariff questions and a vote for him is a vote for continued prosperity. Your duty is plain.

TO TEACH FIRE FIGHTING.

Kansas City Expert Asked to Instruct English Firemen.

George C. Hale, former chief of the Kansas City fire department, has received a letter from London asking him to visit that city with a view of giving his advice and suggestions in the reorganization of the English fire fighting service, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer. The letter came from Horace Faulkner, secretary of the British Fire Brigades union. Chief Hale has consented and is to discuss the subject further with a committee of English fire officials whom he is to meet in New York.

Early last spring fifteen girls lost their lives in a two story building through the slowness of the London fire department. The London papers took the matter up and drew a comparison between the work of the London firemen and the methods of the Kansas City firemen, who gave an exhibition under Chief Hale at the Crystal Palace. Chief Hale has twice taken a Kansas City fire team to Europe in competition with the best departments in the world and each time returned victorious. Hale was ousted as chief of the Kansas City department a few months ago on account of his politics.

"A POOR RELATION".

The Duluth Herald of Wednesday morning says: "A Poor relation," Sol Smith Russell's famous play, was presented at the Lyceum last evening by a company headed by Horace Lewis. The play is a pretty one, delightful in sentiment and strongly appealing to the sympathies. Like many of the plays of times gone by, however, it has a villain of the unnatural and extravagant type, who brings down upon himself the jeers and hooting of the gallery gods and makes one feel genuinely sorry for the poor fellow who has to play the part. The old style is also seen in its talkiness and the great number of "asides."

Mr. Lewis gives a fine impersonation of the poor inventor, childlike in his simplicity and innocence, with a nature delicate, tender and generous, and yet proud as the mightiest in spite of his abject poverty. There is less of the spontaneous humor in his interpretation than Mr. Russell gave to the part, but he touches the heart strings effectively, playing the part touchingly and sympathetically.

The support was fair. George R. Sprague was excellent as Roderick Faye, the rich manufacturer with a shrewish second wife who hates her step-daughter because of the father's love for her. Portia Albee was very good as "Scollops", the terror of the top floor of the tenement. The children, Little Winkle and Miss Bibbins, were pleasing.

Tonight "A Poor Relation" will be given at the Brainerd Opera House.

"A LITTLE OUTCAST"

"A Little Outcast," which will be presented at the Brainerd opera house next Monday evening, Oct. 13, is a radical departure from the old style melodrama. Many novel characters are introduced and scenery is carried by the company to properly stage the production. The play is the plain story of a man and his faults, and moves from scenes of fashionable life in uptown mansions to the life of "the under world," down in the haunts of evil and crime. Paul Weston is a young man in the employ of a wealthy broker, Mr. Harcourt. Incidentally he is also the secretly wedded husband of Mr. Harcourt's pretty daughter, Mandoline. Back in the years before circumstances brought him to the rich broker's notice, Weston had served a term in prison for another man's crime, but, knowing the inflexible brand such a thing leaves on a man's record, he had never mentioned it to anyone, and with a determination to make a new name for himself had striven manfully upward, until at the opening of the play he was about to be accepted as a junior partner in the firm.

His nemesis, however, is close upon him, and he is recognized by a former cell mate. To buy his silence Weston compromises himself by taking money from the safe, intending to replace it immediately. His detection by the disappointed nephew of the broker, who has hoped to be both partner and son-in-law, leads Weston into terrible trouble and misery. Deserted by all but the faithful newsboy, "Bob," and mourned by his wife as dead, he sinks to the lowest depths of degradation, until by a Divine Providence he is shown the error of his ways and works out his own redemption.

His final victory over self and over his enemies and the restoration of his wife and his fortune make a strong drama of human emotions, fascinating in interest, intense in realism and superb in dramatic power.

Seats on sale tomorrow at 10 o'clock at Dunn's drug store.

Goes Like Hot Cakes.

"The fastest selling article I have in my store," writes druggist C. T. Smith, of Davis, Ky., "is Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, because it always cures. In my six years of sales it has never failed. I have known it to save sufferers from throat and lung diseases, who could get no help from doctors or any other remedy." Mothers rely on it, best physicians prescribe it, and McFadden Drug Co. and H. P. Dunn & Co. drug store guarantee satisfaction or refund price. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes, 50c and $1.00.
